Public Administration Civil Service Handbook 2026

Section 1: Fundamental Service Principles

Public officials must perform duties with utmost integrity, impartiality, and transparency.

All decisions must be documented with objective justification adhering to statutory provisions.

Section 2: Ethical Standards and Conduct

• Maintain strict confidentiality of official records and citizens personal data

• Disclose potential conflicts of interest immediately to supervisory authorities

• Facilitate open public inquiries within prescribed statutory timelines