The Adventures of Spot the Dog

Tim had a little brown dog named Spot.

Spot liked to run and jump in the green park with all his friends.

One sunny morning, they found a big red rubber ball under a tall oak tree.

Tim threw the ball across the grass, and Spot ran very fast to catch it.

He brought the ball back to Tim with a happy wag of his tail.

They played fetch until the warm sun began to set behind the hills.

Then they walked home together and ate a tasty dinner.

It was a happy and wonderful day for both of them.
